

Employee Free Choice Act!

Tell Senator Arlen Specter: Stand with Working Families in Pennsylvania & Reconsider Your Position on the Employee Free Choice Act

When: Friday, April 17, 2009 at Noon

Where: The rally will take place at the John Mitchell Statue at the Lackawana County Courthouse (statue is located on the Adams Avenue side of the courthouse). A delivery of cards to Senator Specter's office will follow.

Why: We are extremely disappointed with Senator Specter's recent decision to block a vote on the Employee Free Choice Act. We're letting him know by delivering thousands of letters and postcards from concerned Pennsylvanians.
